

HACIENDA DEL SOL

GUEST RANCH RESORT

TUCSON, ARIZONA

A Tucson Landmark Since 1929

In 1929, John and Helen Murphey created Hacienda Del Sol, a desert getaway and "home away from home" ranch school for girls. The prestigious school's roster boasted some of the country's most elite families: Vanderbilt, Pillsbury, Maxwell, Westinghouse, and Campbell, to name a few. In 1948, Hacienda Del Sol was converted into a guest ranch that immediately attracted the Silver Screen's most notable stars, among them John Wayne and Clark Gable. Legend has it that Hacienda's Casita Grande was the favorite hideaway of Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn. Discover the romantic and vintage style of Hacienda del Sol Guest Ranch Resort. Rich in Tucson history, the resort resides in the foothills of the Santa Catalina Mountains on 34 acres of natural desert landscape. Join us in one of our many Dining options nightly with Live, Local Music to accompany a spectacular meal.

Tuesday - Sunday Live Piano Music in the Joesler Piano Lounge beginning at 6:30pm
Friday's and Saturday's in the Terraza del Sol Patio at 7pm
